

ROUND SQUARE POST CARDS

Round Square Postcard – Ashbury School, Ottawa

'What are your IDEALS for 2025' was the Round Square Postcard theme attended by six MYP Grade 7 students. This postcard highlighted the strong connections between Round Square IDEALS and the MYP learner profile attributes emphasizing student development that would shape them into lifelong learners.

NMAJS Delegates: Adi Pavoor, Arham Shah, Aryan Vivek, Miraya Mehta, Nisa Singhanian and Veda Goel.

Round Square Postcard - GEMS Millennium School, Sharjah

MYP Grade 7 students participated in the Round Square Postcard, 'From Storms to Serenity: Blue Skies After Rain'. Our students explored the theme of resilience and 'HOPE' in adverse situations.

NMJAS Delegates: Aanya Bhatia, Evanya Chudgar, Ira Teny, Parshwa Khokhani, Shardul Shinde and Trina Chaitanya

Round Square Postcard – St Stithians Girls' School, South Africa

Six IBDP Grade 11 students participated in the Round Square Postcard where the theme of the Postcard was "Democracy: G20 Summit and the Role that Youth Play" bringing together students from across the world to discuss the importance of youth engagement in global decision-making.

DAIS Delegates: Riddimma Sampat, Ikshu Shinde, Aanya Shah, Tvisha Soni, Ilisha Avasthi and Aarav Reddy.

Round Square Postcard – Shiv Nadar School, Noida

Six NMAJS MYP Grade 8 participated in the Round Square Postcard - 'Threads of Humanity: Celebrating Diverse Voices in Literature'. The Postcard explored inclusivity, equity, justice, and diversity through the lens of literature.

NMJAS Delegates: Ananya Mehta, Ishaan Mody, Ishaan Subramanian, Sanaaya Joisher, Siddhant Parikh and Tamanna Tripathi.

Round Square Postcard - Providence Day School, USA

Six NMAJS MYP Grade 7 delegates participated in a Round Square Postcard which centred on the theme "Navigating the Digital Landscape." Engaging presentations on tech trends and social media sparked discussions on AI, youth communication, and digital challenges such as screen overuse and misinformation.

NMAJS Delegates: Anaya Deshmukh, Divisha Khandelwal, Aaradhya Bachchan, Kiara Ratnani, Ritvik Sikaria and Mihika Sanghvi.

Round Square Postcard - St. George's Diocesan School, Namibia

Six DAIS students from IGCSE Grade 8 participated in the Round Square Postcard - 'The Benefits of Social Media on Today's Youth'. Delegates explored the advantages and drawbacks of social media, its impact on mental health, and media addiction through interactive activities.

DAIS Delegates: Arush Loonkar, Rishaan Shah, Mihika Daga, Alaina Goyal, Aditi Gupta, Om Mandloi.

Round Square Postcard – RBIS International School, Bangkok

Six students from MYP Grade 6 represented DAIS at the Round Square Postcard, 'Creative Chaos: How Hobbies and Passions Shape Who We Are'.

NMAJS Delegates - Aaryan Kothari, Priana Dharia, Rahini Chheda, Seth Keswani, Taarush Choudhary & Veda Krishnan.

Round Square Postcard – St. George's Grammar School, Namibia

DAIS IGCSE Grade 8 participated in a Round Square Postcard titled "Dissecting Cultures," where they explored the importance of open-mindedness, cross-cultural bonds, and positive mindsets.

DAIS Delegates - Naira Negandhi, Vioona Shroff, Sidh Bothra, Arnav Jain, Miraaya Veer.

Round Square Postcard – Stanford Lake College, South Africa

Delegates from DAIS ICSE, 10 A participated in a Round Square Postcard. Themed around stereotypes, students reflected on the impact of stereotypes rooted in culture, race, gender, and nationality.

DAIS Delegates - Vaniya Lalwani, Sharmila Ranganathan, Vriddhi Shah, Sharanya Badala, Saanvie Sheth.